

Clair and Lydia Comish

Comishes' 50th

The children and grandchildren of Clair and Lydia Comish will honor their parents 50th wedding anniversary with a family dinner.

They were married Sept. 28, 1940. Their marriage was solemnized in the Logan LDS Temple June 5, 1962.

Mrs. Comish was born in Providence, a daughter of Ira and Lydia Hansen Hyer. She was raised in Lewiston. She has been a nurse's aid, homemaker and mother of six children. She enjoys reading.

Mr. Comish was born in Franklin, a son of George and Margaret Biggs Comish. He was raised in Franklin. He has been employed at the Amalgamated Sugar Factory and worked in construction. He is an active sports enthusiast.

They operated a dairy and poultry farm throughout their married life. They are active in the LDS Church, holding various positions. They enjoy spending time with their family and being good neighbors.

They are parents of five daughters and one son. They and their spouses are: Sandra and Pat Hoggan of North Logan; Sharor and Tony Federico of Centerville; Nancy and Roge Hansen of Smithfield; Margie and Rick Meinders of Caldwell, Idaho; Ted of Raleigh, N.C.; and Susan (deceased). They have 17 grandchildren.

Funeral Services Held in Cove Ward For Susan Comish

Impressive funeral services for Susan Comish were held Oct. 9 at 1 p.m. in the Cove ward chapel with Bishop Richard D. Pond conducting.

Susan was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Comish and granddaughter of the late George and Margaret Comish, life long residents of Franklin.

Prelude and postlude music was played on the organ by Ethel Leavitt. Prayer at the home was given by Andrew Hyer. The ward choir, under the direction of Oneta Day, sang "Through Deepening Trials" and "Sometime We'll Understand." Ada Chatterton sang a solo accompanied by Grace Robinson. Ethel Leavitt and Myrtha Westover of Lewiston played an organ and piano duet, "The Slumber Song." Speakers were Dan Stoddard, an uncle, from Colorado Springs, Colo., H. Ray Pond, Mrs. Oneta Day and Bishop Pond. Prayers were given by Marlow Woodward and Quinton Shumway.

Burial was in Franklin cemetery where Earl Crockett dedicated the grave. Pallbearers were Billy Wright, Terry Wright, David Comish, Gerald Comish, Neil Jensen and Sidney Jensen. Flowers were under the direction of the Cove ward Relief Society. Glen Larsen and Clarence Allen supervised the cars.

died - 6 Oct. 1961