

Patriarchal Blessing

No. 11.

Recorded in Book A.

Downy, Nov. 7, 1915

A blessing given by Myron John Richards Patriarch. Upon the head of Earl Clarkson Crockett, Son of Ozro Ozias Crocket, and Ruth Clarkson. Born May 13, 1903 at Preston, Idaho. Brother Earl; I lay my hands upon your head, and give unto you a blessing as it shall be directed of the spirit unto me. Your faith in the Lord in your early youth has entitled you to a blessing, and in as much as you desire a Patriarchal blessing it shall be given unto you for you are of the lineage of the ancient Patriarchs through the loins of Joseph. The Lord has assigned unto you a mission before your birth, and your Guardian Angel is watching over you, and will assist you to accomplish this mission, it will be necessary for you to seek the Lord diligently that you may have power over the Evil One who shall seek to destroy your life, but through your faith and prayers your Guarding Angel shall go before you, and at times ward off the blows of the adversary, and shall whisper to your soul the course for you to pursue. You shall live to see great events transpire in the earth, and shall take an active part in establishing the work of the Lord upon the earth. You shall yet hold reasonable positions of honor of and trust. Put your faith in the Lord and trust in him, and you shall preform miracles for which you must not forget to give the Lord the credit. I bless you with power to meet and overcome the besetments? that shall be placed in your path-way. You shall have power over Evil Spirits, and to heal the sick.

Be of good cheer; and do not give way to despondent feelings, for preforming your mission. I bless you with power to over-come Evil, and come forth in the morning of the first resurrection with The Just. Israel these blessings upon you in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
